> in machinery, photography, telegraphy, and in suicces generally, which the rapid advance of forcign relations has imposed upon them, are here given in extense. Each and every word is Commercial Bank Buildings, Queen's Road, fully illustrated and explained, forming caercises for students of a most instructive nature. Both the Court and Punti pronunciations are the best principle hitherto attained. The typegraphy displays the success of an attempt to make the Chinese and Edglish type correspond in the size of body, thereby effecting a vast conomy of space, achieving a clearness not previously attained, and dispensing with those vast marking and vacunt spaces which have heretofore characterized Chinese publications. The scope of the work is so great, and its utilitarian purposes so complete, that a reference to its pages enables a person who understands English to communicate effectively with natives who understand nothing but Chinese. In this respect the work will be found indispensable to all Europeans residing in China, and to the antives themselves it ex and Funcy DRESSES, black and colored Piece plains subjects fully, with which very fow indeed of them are perfectly acquainted.
